Trails are Essential to a Healthy Community

What you are doing is important!

Trail use surged during Covid

Trails became the most utilized Recreation spaces in 2020

New users created a constituency for citizen advocates for trail development and maintenance.

Residents are looking for more safe and local spaces to walk, ride and experience the outdoors.

Nationwide, people are seeking outdoor space where they can be active at a safe social distance.

Trail Advocacy is:

Improving the quality of life in your community

Increasing property values

Enhancing mental and physical health
